

FIRST COMMAND PRIVACY POLICY

The First Command Privacy Policy is designed to explain what type of information we collect, how it is used, and with whom and under what circumstances it will be shared. Current clients will receive a current copy of the First Command Privacy Policy on an annual basis. Additionally, it is available on the Internet: www.firstcommmand.com and www.firstcommandbank.com.

The First Command Privacy Policy applies to First Command Financial Services, Inc., and its wholly owned subsidiary companies, including First Command Financial Planning, Inc. and First Command Bank (together the "First Command Family of Companies").

If you have any questions about the privacy, security and protection of your information, you may write to the First Command Legal and Compliance Department, Attn. Privacy Policy, 1 FirstComm Plaza, Fort Worth, TX 76109-4999 or call 800-443-2104.

This notice replaces any previous notices provided to you by us about the privacy, security and protection of information. We may amend this notice at any time. We will inform you of changes as required by law.

A. COLLECTION OF INFORMATION

We collect information about you to provide you with superior customer service, save you time, better respond to your needs, and manage our business and risks. We collect information about you from the following sources:

- Directly from you on forms, applications, and other similar documents; via the Internet; by telephone; or otherwise. Examples of this type of information includes your name, address, names of family members, marital status, Social Security Number, employment information, and financial situation, etc.

- From transactions with us or with companies through which we provide you products and services. For example, account balances, holdings, and history (bank, mutual fund, annuity, etc.); insurance coverages, limits, rates, beneficiaries, and claims history.
- From consumer report agencies, such as information relating to your creditworthiness, your credit score, credit usage, and claims history.
- From third parties to verify the information you have given us and protect against fraudulent activity as required by law.

B. PROTECTING YOUR INFORMATION

Keeping your information secure is one of our most important responsibilities. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to protect your information. We limit access to customer information to those employees and others who have a business reason to know this information. We maintain strict internal policies against unauthorized disclosure or use of client information. Even if you are no longer a customer, we will treat your information in the same manner as if you were still a customer.

C. INFORMATION SHARING WITH THIRD PARTIES

Individuals or companies outside the First Command Family of Companies are considered third parties. We will not share your information with third parties so they may market their products to you. Accordingly, you do not need to tell us to refrain from sharing your information with third parties.

We may share the information we collect about you as described above with third parties only as permitted or required by law. For example, we may share information:

- With service providers that assist us with a variety of business activities, including marketing on our behalf, customer service, account administration, online support, and research.

- To protect against or prevent actual or potential fraud, unauthorized transactions, claims, or other liability.
- To process your requests or provide services regarding a financial product or service you request or authorize (such as mutual funds, financial planning services, insurance, deposit accounts, loans, credit cards, etc.). Companies with whom we may share your information in this regard include mutual fund companies, insurance companies, banks, and transfer agents which maintain your accounts.
- With government entities in response to subpoenas or regulatory requirements.
- With consumer reporting agencies and/or credit bureaus.
- Pursuant to your written consent.

All third parties with whom we share your information are required to protect the confidentiality of the information provided by us and may only disclose such information as permitted by law.

D. INFORMATION SHARING WITHIN THE FIRST COMMAND FAMILY OF COMPANIES

We are required to inform you of your rights to limit our ability to share information within our Family of Companies. Your rights are described below:

- You may direct us not to share information about your creditworthiness received from you or others (such as information from your application or your employment or credit history) within our Family of Companies. However, even if you direct us not to share information about your creditworthiness, we may still share certain other information about you within our Family of Companies as permitted by law (such as your name, address, transactions or balances with us, or survey results).

The reason you share your information with us is so that we may use your information to determine whether the investment, insurance and banking products and services we offer are a good fit for you and to provide you with recommendations and service for these products and services. In order to accomplish this objective and provide the recommendations and services you request, we may share your information within our Family of Companies to ensure that the recommendations and services we provide consider your complete financial picture and complement each other. Should you choose to exercise your right to prohibit sharing of information among our Family of Companies, we may be unable to establish or continue a relationship with you as your choice may limit our ability to serve you in this manner.

- You may also direct our companies not to market products or services to you based on information received from one of our other companies. This limitation, however, does not apply in certain circumstances permitted by law, such as if you already have a pre-existing relationship with the company desiring to market its products or services to you.

To inform us about your choices, you may write to: First Command Legal and Compliance Department, Attn. Privacy Policy, 1 FirstComm Plaza, Fort Worth, TX 76109-4999 or call 800-443-2104. Your decision will not expire until you revoke it in writing.

E. PROTECTING MEDICAL AND HEALTH INFORMATION

We do not share any medical or health information with third parties or within the First Command Family of Companies, except as necessary to process transactions or services you have requested or initiated or as otherwise permitted by law. For example, we may share medical or health information you have provided to us in connection with an insurance application with insurance companies to determine your eligibility or for underwriting purposes.

F. ONLINE SECURITY POLICY

For information regarding our online security practices, we invite you to review our Online Security Policy at www.firstcommand.com or www.firstcommandbank.com.

G. MAKING SURE YOUR INFORMATION IS ACCURATE

You have the right to review the information we have collected about you to ensure that it is accurate and current. You can also request corrections to any personal information maintained by us.

To review the information we collect about you, submit a request in writing to the First Command Legal and Compliance Department, Attn. Privacy Policy, 1 FirstComm Plaza, Fort Worth, TX 76109-4999. You must describe the kind of information you want to review and include your full name, address, telephone number, and date of birth. Upon receipt of your request, we will contact you within 30 business days to describe what information is available for your review. We will not provide information that we feel is privileged.

To correct information about you, send a written request as describe above, explaining your desired correction. Upon receipt of your request, we will contact you within 30 business days to inform you whether we will make the correction or tell you why we will not. We cannot correct consumer report information, such as your credit report. To do this, you must contact the consumer report agency that provided it.
